

Dear Educator,

Bruce Larkin, the published author of over four-hundred early children's books including the extremely popular Larkin's Little Readers Series, donates 20,000 books per week to kindergarten through second grade students.

We were able to meet all of our donation goals in 2005 for K thru 2 students. We are now accepting applications for 2006. Applications will only be considered if dated after Jan 1, 2006.

There is no charge for these books.

There is no charge for shipping and handling.

Individual teachers are encouraged to apply.

To apply for these books please go to: <http://www.wilbooks.com>
